The splendour of sailing ships and the history of the Yokohama Port

Sail Training Ship NIPPON MARU Yokohama Port Museum

Explanation of Tourist Attraction

The Sail Training Ship NIPPON MARU was built in 1930 and was in service for 54 years until 1984, training 11,500 cadets. The ship is now open to the public in Yokohama Minato Mirai. Visitors can learn about the history of Yokohama Port in the adjoining Yokohama Port Museum.

Services/Activities

Volunteer guides are available for ship tours. Groups can reserve special sessions on maritime education such as deck cleaning and rope work. (These require prior discussion / reservation.)*Please check as there are cases in which the above services are not available. Origami boat making classes are held at the Museum every Saturday.
