Nakagawa Kazumasa Art Museum, Manazuru

Explanation of
Tourist Attraction

Manazuru's Nakagawa Kazumasa Art Museum houses 652 works by the painter Kazumasa Nakagawa, an iconic figure in the Japanese art world. Nakagawa holed himself up in his Manazuru studio, where he continued painting up until his death. The museum has five exhibition rooms as well as a tea-ceremony room. The building received the 15th Isoya Yoshida Award for architectural design in 1990, and was selected as one of the top 100 public buildings by the former Ministry of Construction in 2012. Admire the artwork while surrounded by the bountiful nature of the Manazuru Peninsula. Adults: ¥600, high school students: ¥350. Admission is free for people with disabilities.

Nearby Sightseeing Spot

Arajoshi Park

A quiet, peaceful place surrounded by bamboo forests. During the springtime when the weeping cherry blossoms are in bloom, the park holds a special weeping cherry blossom event. Visitors can admire the stunning contrast of pink and green during the daytime, and the fantastic glow of the cherry blossoms at night when they are lit up, tree frog.

Cape Manazuru

Manazuru Peninsula Prefectural Nature Park is a drive-in park on Cape Manazuru. From Cape Manazuru, you can see the Izu Peninsula, the southern Shonan coast, Boso Peninsula, and the Izu Islands. The ocean stretches out as far as the eye can see.
