A park with the view of Mt. Fuji and Tanzawa

Kanigaya Park

Explanation of Tourist Attraction

Located in the southwest of the city, Kanigaya Park was built around the current topography of its location. In the wetland garden of the lowland, they use the spring water from the Yoshioka district to water the 19,000 water irises and Japanese irises. You can enjoy the view of Mt. Fuji and Tanzawa from the observation platform. The best time to see Japanese irises is between mid June to early July. The best time to see lotus flowers is July to August.

selling point

Kanigaya Park is the oasis of Nojima, rich in nature. You can enjoy bird watching, such as red-flanked bluetail, Daurian redstart, common kingfisher, meadow bunting, and etc.
