Osanbashi Pier

Osanbashi Yokohama serves as Yokohama's gateway from the sea, hosting large passenger vessels from other parts of Japan and abroad. The rooftop square, with naturally grown lawns and a wooden deck designed to resemble the deck of a ship, offers stunning views as far as the eye can see.

Roll-Sushi School GURURI

Just like ""Kintaro-ame,"" a candy that shows the folk hero Kintaro's face no matter where it is sliced, the sushi rolls made here display lovely patterns no matter where they are cut. Offering more than 100 different recipes, the school's sushi-making events geared toward women, children, foreign visitors and more are very popular.
