Enjoy a gourmet walk of Enoshima specialties

Enoshima Benzaiten
Nakamise-dori StreetExplanation of Tourist Attraction

This historic shopping street stretches over the pathway from the entrance of Enoshima Island to Enoshima Shrine and is the main tourist street in Enoshima. The street, which is on a gentle slope, is lined with traditional Japanese inns, restaurants, souvenir shops and other stores, creating a lively atmosphere. Very popular among tourists are the wide variety of local seafood including whitebait, Japanese spiny lobsters, Sashimi sliced law fish, horned turban and Asian hard clams as well as souvenir items such as the famous Japanese confectionery Meoto Manju and octopus crackers. Since Enoshima is a historic tourist area, this shopping street has many long-established businesses that use select ingredients and cooking methods to satisfy your appetite. You can leisurely walk around Enoshima Island while enjoying gourmet food from door to door.
