Yokohama Cruise
Royal Wing

Explanation of
 Tourist Attraction

The Royal Wing is a restaurant-ship based at the Osanbashi Bridge. This bridge, floating above the sea, is a beautiful monument and symbol of modern Yokohama, and offers 360-degree panoramic views. You can enjoy delicious food while gazing at the red-brick warehouses or the buildings of Minatomirai. Popular cruises include the 2-hour lunch cruise, where you can enjoy the scenery of the town and sea of Yokohama, and the dinner cruise with its gorgeous night scenery.

Nearby Sightseeing Spot

Hotel New Grand

Opened in 1927, this classic hotel preserves the appearance of Yokohama when the port opened. It continues to act as international city Yokohama's spot for global VIPs to stay.

Osanbashi Bridge

This passenger terminal acts as the port of entry into Yokohama for many large passenger boats from Japan and abroad. The roof of the terminal features grass and a wooden deck made to look like a ship deck. Here you can take in the scenery that lays before your eyes.
