When speaking of Misaki, you're sure to think of tunas!

Miura City Misaki Regional Wholesale Market (Misaki Fish Market)

Explanation of Tourist Attraction

A wholesale market where 400 to 1,000 frozen maguro (tuna) are traded per day. The local people affectionately refer to it as "Misaki Uo Ichiba" (Misaki Fish Market). There is a passage on the second floor where visitors can observe the market. This passage is also used by elementary and junior high students on their field trips. Since "bidding" is open to spectators from around 8 AM on days when the market is open, we recommend you spend the previous night in Miura or Yokosuka.

selling point

At Misaki "Fish Market Shokudo (diner)" on the second floor of Miura City Misaki Regional Wholesale Market, you can enjoy seafood delicacies from 6 in the morning (from 5 AM on Sundays). It is a popular shop for both market participants and locals alike.
