<Amusement>

A hands-on, participatory-type museum that expands the world of Anpanman

Yokohama Anpanman Children's Museum and Mall

Explanation of Tourist Attraction

From Yanase Takashi's original picture book series, Anpanman is a hero that stands for love and courage. This museum focused on hands-on, active participation, allows children to fulfil their dream of entering the world of Anpanman.

The facility consists of a museum floor (with admission fee) where the world of Anpanman can be enjoyed to the fullest, as well as a shop & food/restaurant floor (no admission fee) where cute Anpanman merchandise and delicious food can be relished.

Museum admission fee: ¥2,200 yen (tax inclusive) *For children aged 1 or older

*Same day re-entry to the museum is permitted. *Admission to the shop & food/restaurant floor is free. *Those with disabilities (and up to one carer) are entitled to a 50% discount upon presentation of their disability identification booklets.
