The world famous "Hanging Railway"
Shonan Monorail

Explanation of Tourist Attraction

This Shonan Monorail runs through a rich natural environment, full of greenery from Ofuna (Kamakura City) to Shonan Enoshima (Fujisawa City). It was introduced in 1970 as a railway suitable for running safely and at high speed while going along the violent, winding roads and the ups and downs of the mountains. There are actually only three of these unique monorails operating in Japan. Passengers can experience the exciting and exhilarating feeling as it runs through the scenery and sharp curves.

selling point

This is one of the unique hanging railway in the world. There is a one-day free ticket of which services can be received from affiliated stores.

Nearby Sightseeing Spot

Kamakura Mononofutai

Kamakura Mononofutai does various activities such as reposing of souls or spirits that sleep in Kamakura and community promotions that lead to the future of Kamakura. As part of the activity, they're dressed in Samurai outfits from the Kamakura era, conducting tours within the city.

Mt. kamakura RAI TEI

The restaurant is preserved and operates as it did in 1929. It was Japan's first development of villas to sell publicly. Guests can enjoy the relocated and rebuilt, authentic silk-raising farmer style building from the Edo era and the beautiful view of Mt. Fuji.
