Visited by those from abroad in search of the world of "Zen"

Kencho-ji Temple school of the Rinzai sect,
Dokuonji

Explanation of Tourist Attraction

Established in 1619. Meditation sessions and Sutra-copying sessions, as well as speeches and workshops regarding Zen Buddhism and Mental Health Care, all for foreigners are also conducted. In recent years, there have also been an increasing number of exchange students, researchers, and stationed employees from universities, corporations, government and municipal offices, and international organizations in the metropolitan area, as well as their family members, carrying out Zen meditation. Zen is not a religion but a practice, therefore anyone can participate.

selling point

The chief priest, Soin Fujio, is proficient in English. In a regular meditation session, other than the family that supports the temple, there are also times when foreigners who want to reexamine themselves through meditation participate.
