Nearby Sightseeing Spot

Tsurugisaki Lighthouse

Tsurugisaki Lighthouse located on the cape of Tsurugisaki was built in 1866, and rebuilt after the Great Kanto Earthquake. From the upland with an elevation of 29 m, visitors can see the Boso Peninsula on the opposite shore, which is very scenic. This place is selected as one of the 50 best scenic spots in Kanagawa.

Thief's Cliff

There is an old story about thieves who were chased to the edge of the mountain. When they looked down, they trembled, went weak at the knees and could not move due to the terrifying cliff (30 m in height) and angry whirlpools. They were caught easily, and the word "Nusutto (thief)" still remains in the name. There are anglers on days when the waves are calm.
