Yugawara Art Museum

Explanation of Tourist Attraction

Yugawara is a hot spring that has been well known since the Manyo period. Yugawara Art Museum is an art museum that collects artworks that are related to Yugawara, such as those of Seiho Takeuchi, Sotaro Yasui, and Katsumi Miyake. It used to be an old ryokan (Japanese inn) that was renovated in 1998 and opened as "Art Museum Related to Yugawara." Reiji Hiramatsu' public studio opened in the museum in 2017. Enjoy viewing the artworks at a leisurely pace surrounded by soul calming nature.

Nearby Sightseeing Spot

Manyo Park

A green park along the Chitose River after crossing the vermilion-lacquered bridge in the heart of Yugawara Hot Springs Town. There is a footbath facility, "Doppo no Yu" (hot spring), where you can stimulate your acupuncture points while soaking your feet on a hot spring to enjoy the effects of a massage.

Wagashi Shop Mirakuan

(workshops for making traditional Japanese sweets)

Mirakuan in Yugawara, which is famous for its mandarin orange monaka (wafer cake filled with bean jam), is allowing visitors to experience making traditional Japanese sweets. The traditional Japanese sweets that visitors make can be made into souvenirs or eaten on the spot. (Reservation required)
