

— Immersion into Zen philosophy & gardens —

Kenkohji Temple

A beautiful Japanese garden designed by the temple's head priest that represents the spirit of Zen

Rev. Masuno Shunmyo is both the chief priest of this Zen temple and a world-renowned garden designer. Newsweek Japan listed him as one of the 100 most respected Japanese people in the world. His work on Japanese gardens, including the one at the Canadian embassy in Tokyo, is highly regarded worldwide for its expression of Zen philosophy. The garden at Kenkohji is a masterpiece that incorporates carefully chosen stones and trees.

Exclusive Programs

Zen world and Zen meditation experience introduced by Rev. Masuno Shunmyo

Special Program 1

Experience Zen meditation in the temple's grand main hall which he designed and was built by highly skilled carpenters using rare woods. With instruction by Rev. Masuno Shunmyo, immerse yourself in the world of Zen.

Special Program 2

Follow Rev. Masuno Shunmyo as he leads you on a guided tour of the main hall's garden, which he designed and which is usually closed to the public. Discover how each tree and stone expresses the spirit of Zen.

Information

Location: Yokohama, Kanagawa
Contact: Kanagawa DMO
E-mail: product@kanagawa-kankou.or.jp