

Hakone Ashinoko Narukawa Art Museum

Shohei Takasaki
<Mt. Fuji in Spring Breeze> 2021

Matazo Kayama <A Cat> 1976
*The exhibited works are subject to change.

Opened in 1988, the Narukawa Art Museum prides itself with a collection of over 4,000 works of contemporary "Nihonga" Japanese paintings.

The exhibition changes every four months, so you will encounter a new work of art each time you visit.

Please enjoy the lifelong and profound expression of contemporary Japanese paintings that have progressed through history and including postwar Japan along with the general manager, Mr. Katsunori Kanagawa's commentary.

Exclusive programs

Program A

Early Morning Private Program

- This program is designed for those seeking an exclusive and private tour of the museum.
- Take advantage of the unique opportunity to privatize the museum in the morning and with a morning cup of coffee or tea in the cafe lounge, where you can bask in the spectacular view of Lake Ashinoko and the iconic Mt. Fuji.
- Immerse yourself in the world of Nihonga as you learn about their characteristics and discover ways to truly enjoy and appreciate them, all under the expert guidance of the general manager.

Program B

Daytime Program

- The daytime program includes a private museum tour by the general manager during the business hours of the museum, followed by viewing of the artworks in the museum.

(Coffee or tea at the cafe will be included.)

Information

Location: Yokohama, Kanagawa

Contact: Kanagawa DMO

E-mail: product@kanagawa-kankou.or.jp