

Kamakura's Gardens

by Saori Imoto

The language of Japanese gardens

Award-winning garden designer and Kamakura resident, Saori-san, will guide you through the beautiful natural landscapes and gardens of Kamakura that only locals know. As well as decoding the mysteries of Zen gardens, she will also explain the differences in design between Japanese and Western gardens. Saori-san, former UK resident, will also ensure you cover the most stunning and richly historical sights, in an immersive and educational day out. Customised tours to specialist interests and timing requirements are available.

Exclusive Program Features

- Learn from award-winning local garden designer
- Understand the unique way of Zen gardens and their flora
- Experience sutra copying while listening to the sounds of nature at a Kamakura Temple
